PUBLISHED BY THE STUDENTS OF
MICHIGAN STATE NORMAL COLLEGE

From the beginning of time records, a tree has been used as a symbol of the universal design of Life. Its stem corresponds to the mental parent center of a living unfoldment; the branches, a receptive circle maintaining a true balance of interests and developing in mutual agreement.

In Science, Evolution, and Immortality

PIERCE HALL

Unmoved by Nature's furies, unstained by man's fool deeds,
Seven decades and five you withstood them all,
And from the fruit of your womb came forth the seeds
That today incur your fall.

Once men built this holy shrine
And ardent scholars came to kneel
And sought to know the art divine
Of teaching what thy laws reveal.

You gave them to feel that by thy power
Bright hopes could deck the darkest hour;
Taught rising youth thy golden light
To cheer the groping students' sight.

But Art and Science built in vain,
For thou, O sacred fane,
Hast felt thy last embrace—
The mallet and the chisel are gouging out thy face.

To thy great purpose, so well propounded,
We, who drank deep of thy flowing fountain,
Pledge our hearts and deeds to the goal you founded;
May our steps falter not to the crest of Life's mountain.

DEDICATION

To the United Nations, its organs and its members is dedicated the 1947 AURORA. Aurora, the rosty-fingered dawn of a day of peace, appears on the distant horizon. A day wherein the council table supplants the battlefield, and the architects of ideas and ideals replace the engineers of death and destruction. May the day be warm and clear, and may sunset never come. To the United Nations we dedicate the AURORA and to Peace we dedicate ourselves.

PRUNING THE OLD

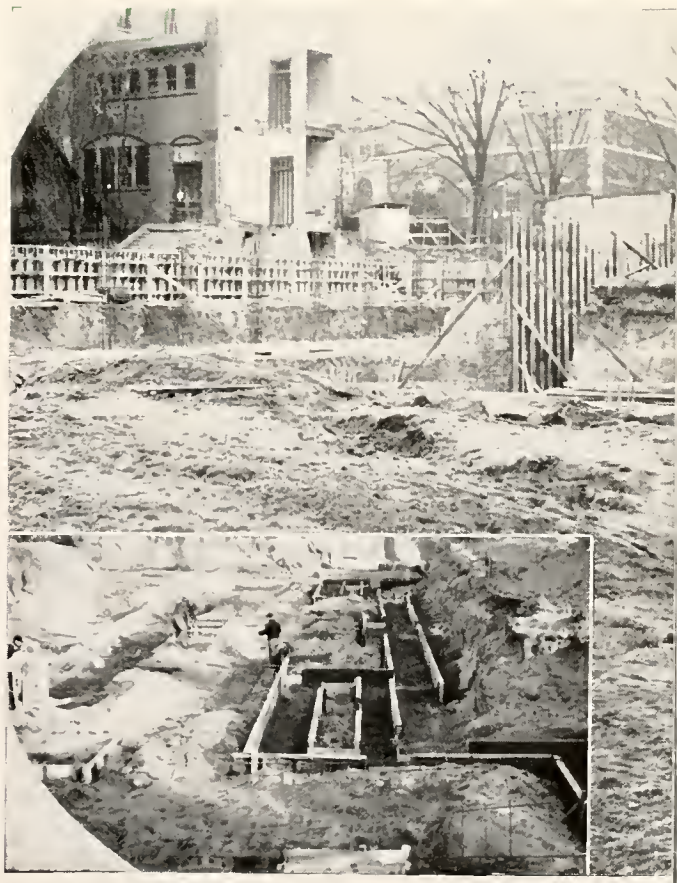
The last sound echoed and subsided into silence, and the night deftly settled into the corners and crannies, softening the sharp outlines of Pierce Hall. Somehow the windows were eyes peering into the opaqueness with a strained and fearful stare. A gaping hole in the earth's surface lay just beyond—the foundation for the new Pierce.

Some of us feel it as a loss, the separation of a part from the whole, others feel it as a gain, but it is neither. In truth it is but a change, a modification to make room for the growth and expansion of M.S.N.C. Even as the old must relinquish their place to the young, so must there be changes to allow for modern trends and developments around us.

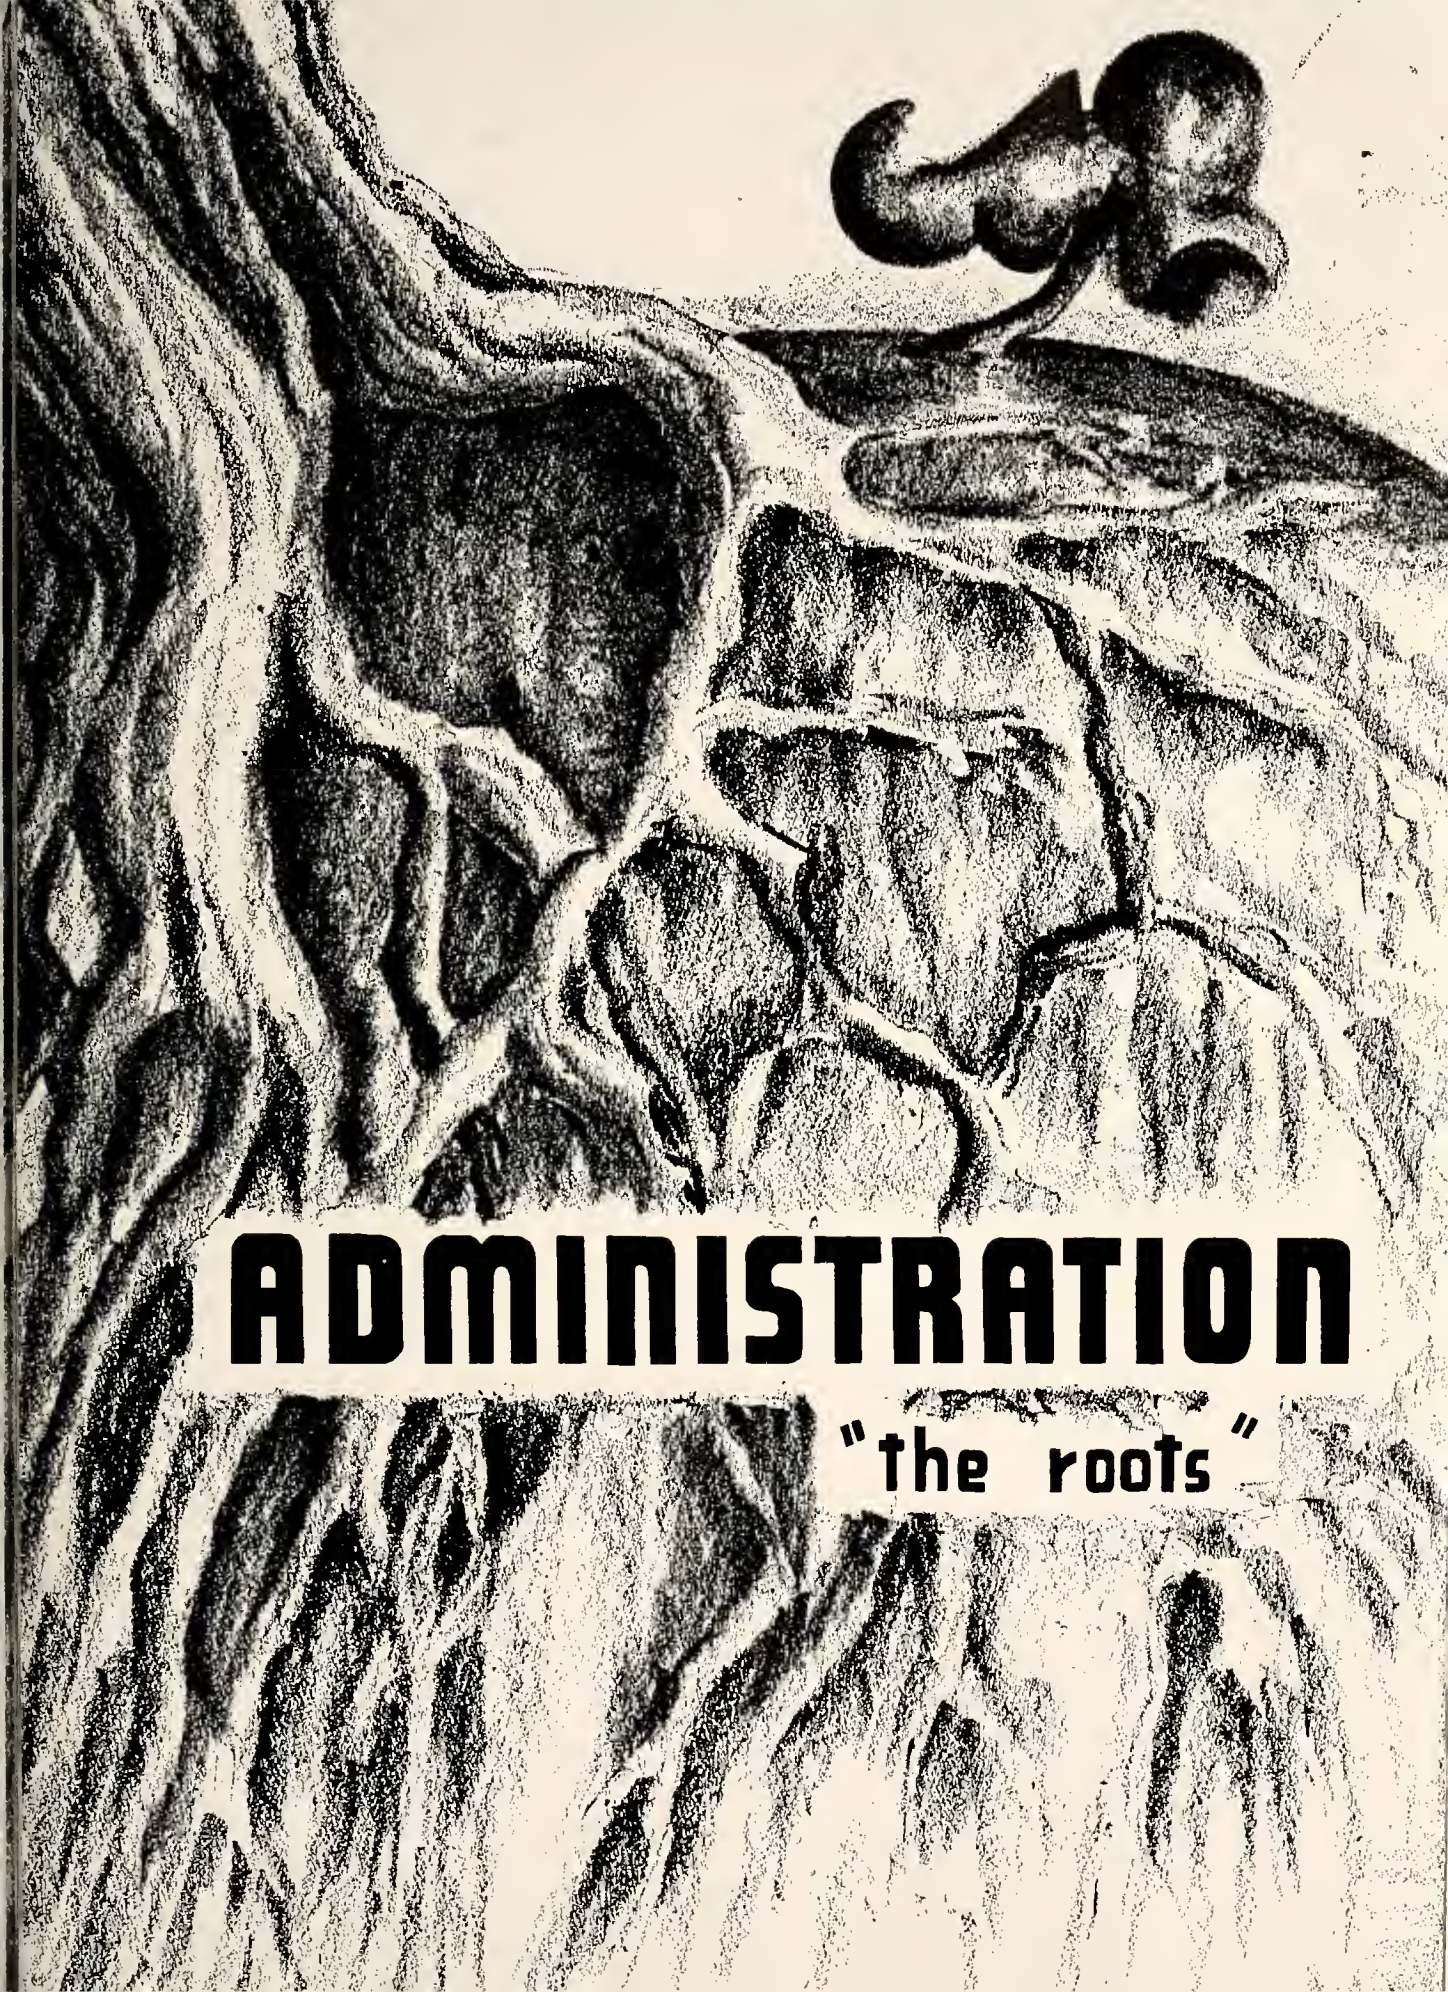
GRAFTING THE NEW

Pierce, with its ageless spire and ivy-velveted walls that for so many years has watched the coming of new students and faculty members, must be changed too—changed, because it will never really be gone. There are too many who will recall the familiar silhouette against the sky and the fun and security they knew within those dear walls.

The process of grafting the new Pierce to the cleft of the old will not be a long one, for soon the usual routine and activity will be under way in the new halls and classrooms. The building will be new and different, but the spirit will remain the same. The ever-constant faith and aspirations will burn in the new as they did in the old. It is only the physical structure that grows old and withers; ambition and aspiration will live forever in the spirit of Pierce Hall.



Administration Building



ADMINISTRATION

OUR PRESIDENT

PRESIDENT JOHN M. MUNSON

The mechanism that makes our college function is the Faculty Administration. Like all other smooth-running organizations, it does its work without too much clatter. At the head, of course, is President John M. Munson, who is completing his fourteenth year at M. S. N. C.

FACULTY ADMINISTRATORS

You probably know our Dean of Administration, for no doubt you have been in Dean Isbell's office more than once. Perhaps he has cheerfully helped you to classify, if you began the year late, or helped in some way to straighten out your program.

If you girls wanted to get excused to be bridesmaids at your sister's wedding, or if you just couldn't see why you were failing chemistry, you went to the Dean of Women, Susan B. Hill, or if you were seeking employment, you sought out the Associate Dean, Frances Farnham. Both of these women also help arrange social functions through the Social Director.

If you men wanted anything from a solution to domestic problems to guidance in choosing a profession, you turned to Dean of Men, "Bingo" Brown.

It is our Mr. Butler who secures positions for graduating students.

Of course you have all seen Mr. Steimle, our good-natured Registrar, who takes much ribbing with a smile. He supervises the scholastic records of all students, and keeps before us the requirements for graduation.

From day to day, these officers go about advising, assisting and directing students in an endeavor to keep them on the right path in this vital task of achieving an education.

DORM ADMINISTRATORS

The girls spend the greater part of their college life in the dormitory. For at least eight hours a day they eat, sleep and study in their suites. Much discussion is carried on, much food is consumed, and much laughter rings from the corridors.

Ask a resident of either dorm if she is crowded and she will blithely answer no, and open the closet only to have the junk tumble out, or point out the bookcases loaded with books, or the drawers stuffed with sweaters. No, they are not crowded, four in a room gives them lots of space—to stand up!

Nevertheless, the girls are proud of their home, and very proud of their head residents, Miss Carson and Mrs. Whitney, who are ably assisted by Mrs. Baltzer and Mrs. Carr. The house-mothers are the heart of the dormitories, and do well their job of keeping the girls in line, as well as providing them with a real home away from home.

Men are bustling all over Munson Hall since the war ended. Once again the rooms are completely filled with four hearty, lusty fellows each, all eager for active college life. It warms the hearts of the girls of King and Goodison to see all the lights at Munson Hall aglow after two and a half years of a partial blackout.

The dorm is ably watched over by Mr. and Mrs. Richards, head residents of Munson, who have taken over the position held by Mr. and Mrs. Gildenstein for four years.

CHARLES McKENNY HALL, the center of all college social activities, fairly pops with activity every night of the week. Clubs, dinners, informal parties, mixers, sorority and fraternity activities, and formal dances are held in the ballroom and club rooms of the Union.

The first and fourth floors, previously unused, have been converted into living quarters for some of the many men who have returned to campus from the wars.

Acquaintances are made over cokes and coffee obtained in the grill between classes. The meal tickets lose their value quickly as the cashier punches off the cost of the many meals that students eat in the cafeteria.

In the past three years an occasional fellow or girl would wander over to the Union in the daytime, but now the doors are swinging in and out continuously, with students looking for a bridge game, a roommate, a study companion, or a place to while away an hour.

The Union is very expertly managed by Mr. William Brownrigg, recently returned from service in the Navy. The men residents of McKenny Hall are ably supervised by Mr. William Eastman, Assistant Professor of Speech.

THE HEALTH RESIDENCE, headed by Dr. Glenadine Snow, provides relief from colds, aches and pains. Its principal duties consist of administering the annual physical examination, required of every student, and providing various health aids throughout the year.

WOMEN'S LEAGUE

The Women's League is the women's organ of student government. Every woman upon registration automatically becomes a member of the Women's League. It is the governing body of all women on campus.

In addition to its usual activities this year, the League added many new features. It sponsored a coffee hour for veterans' wives. It brought to the campus many noted speakers for the Campus Forums, which were instigated as educational as well as social hours for students and faculty.

The Women's League printed the handbook for the purpose of freshmen orientation. It also sponsors the Service Program directed by Irene Saterstad and Dr. Mary F. Gates.

To climax the year, the Women's League established the Mary Winters' Memorial Award to be bestowed annually upon an outstanding woman student on campus.

ADMINISTRATORS

EXECUTIVE BOARD

The Women's League Executive Board is the governing and policy-making body of our campus. It consists of the chairmen of the various committees serving in the Women's League Service Program. The second group consists of members-at-large who work with the committee chairmen to present to the women students, in addition to their formal education, an extensive program of activities and social affairs. Helen Rahm, as president of the League, was president of the Executive Board.

ADVISORY BOARD

The Women's League Advisory Board, as its name implies, counsels the women in the rules and regulations on campus, and in the respect for these rules as a vital necessity in community living. The Officers of the League and the Board members are elected by the women on campus at the annual spring election.

Helen Rahm, as president of the Women's League, directed the affairs efficiently and effectively. Irene Saterstad, vice-president of the League, served as chairman of the Advisory Board.

MEN'S UNION

We have our Men's Union to thank for the guides or "Mugs" that led our freshmen men around during their first trying days on the campus, and introduced them to the faculty at the first freshmen tea.

Our Men's Union has done excellent work assisting the Women's League in sponsoring the Homecoming and Class Games. It has also done a fine job in sponsoring the Yule Log Drag, of which Bill Adams and Bill Hanford were co-chairmen, and the Spring Breeze, in the second semester.

This organization was started back in 1914, on October 6, for the purpose of encouraging loyalty, good character, and scholarship, and since that date has carried out the college traditions, by sponsoring college affairs and assemblies.

Dean James M. Brown (better known as "Bingo") is the advisor for the Union. Eugene Lucarelli (known to all as "Luke") served as president; Charles Sampier as vice-president; William Coulman as treasurer; and Blake Ferris as secretary.

UNION EXECUTIVE BOARD

The Union Executive Board, which has the task of enforcing the traditional "green pot" law, tries to be fair with all of the freshmen reprimanded.

Each class is represented on the Executive Board by two members. Ted Heusel and William Nuse represented the Seniors; Charles Hollosy and William Cave, the Juniors. Representing the Sophomores were Harold Carpenter and Robert Smiley; and the Freshmen, Ray Cousineau and Joseph Dodd.

MEN'S UNION

THE SOCIAL COMMITTEE

The Social Committee is responsible for those new dance steps you learned at the dancing class, and for the exciting time you had at the Kresge dance on Wednesday night, where you met that handsome fellow or pretty gal.

And who are these people that have done such fine work planning and organizing the Homecoming Dance, the Christmas Party, and the Wigwam Dances? Jane Neafie headed the committee as chairman, with Delphine Poleski, Herb Delaney, Ted Wurgel, Chester Borysewicz and Virginia McLean as the other members.

Two student hosts and hostesses are asked each month to assist the committee.

Mrs. Paul Staake, Jr., has served as Social Director since November of last year.

CLASSES
"the fruit"

SENIORS

Filled with ideals and plans, the busiest and happiest class on campus proudly approached the threshold of Opportunity, gazed calmly and assuredly at the road ahead, and walked confidently into Life.

In 1943, when the Seniors of '47 were just "greenies", there was a shortage of men—nothing serious, mind you, just an average of five gals to every "labeled" guy! The A. S. T. P. helped a little, but did not last long enough. The class got on its feet though and managed to enrich the sojourn of the men with the annual dances. Then, with the war's end, our men filtered back, and the campus took on its old aspect.

With Lewis Crew as class president; Robert Dunwoody as vice-president; William Bachardy, secretary; and Mary Jo Dillon, treasurer; it was a year with many activities and fun. A one-hundred-percent turnout greeted the annual Christmas Sing, and the holiday spirit prevailed everywhere. The Senior Ball came forth as a masquerade, which was the highlight feature of the year, and the Class Day operetta was enthusiastically produced and received.

"So you up-and-coming future 'grads', set your goal and make it—that's what we did!"

JUNIORS

"And what's the biggest dance of the year?" one of the "green seedlings" queried.

"Why, the J-Hop," was the haughty Junior's reply.

The big activity for these go-getting third year "blossoms" began in the Spring with the election of the co-chairmen for their dance. The traditional raffling of five dollars, and the annual art contest for the best poster publicizing the dance were the two chief attractions; that is, aside from the joy received dancing to the rhythm of Bob Strong's orchestra.

Many lush femmes with that "C. O. D." (Come Over, Dear) look in their eyes, and "*Van*some" men graced the ballroom that eventful evening.

The Juniors did not exactly lag behind in the Homecoming parade either, with that ingenious float of theirs, depicting a gigantic spider with Normal's opponent enmeshed in its web. Justly earned, they received honorable mention for their efforts.

The year is now over, so are the parades, the J-Hop, and the spring picnic, but they all remain rooted in the hearts of our "blossoms" as the poignant reminder of their past gaieties, and an inspiration for future laurels in the coming climactic year.

SOPHOMORES

The Sophomores, the buds on our tree, filled with interest and class spirit, started the year by carrying off top honors in the gala Homecoming celebration parade. Their float was the uique creation of Mervin Mack and his committee.

The "terminal buds" of this rising new group were elected October 8, 1946. The results: Bob Smiley, president: John Kokales, vice-president; Fred Brewer, treasurer, and Gerri Moffatt, secretary.

"And we had a hayride, Suzy! It was a riot, everybody singing, laughing, and throwing handfuls of hay. The hot dogs and coffee afterwards were terrific!" This from the animated lips of a Soph pigeon recounting the hayride attended by fifty couples on November 16.

Then!!! The plans for the "Soph Swirl" in the Spring sent all the "cruisin' Suzans" dashing for a "retread". They emerged nothing less than strictly "hubba-hubba" stuff (you know the old story fellows: from jeans to Gee-Whiz!!!). The Drug buzzed with fevered plans and suggestions which proved successful, and another lush evening was enjoyed by all.

The spring picnic and excursion ended the Sophs' "whirl" for '47. See ya in September . . . .

"Move it over!" quipped a green-capped Frosh to a somewhat abashed upperclassman. "We've begun to grow this year! Took some of us a while to settle a certain 'deal' with a 'bunch of squares' before we got here, but the last 'muster' amounted to 1266. And one other B-I-G item . . . . the gals have to cast off the jeans and T-shirts and make like Bacalls and Turners because its M-E-N 3 to 1!!"

Our first social event was the traditional Sunday Tea to which we were escorted by members of the Women's League and the Men's Union. This was our first introduction to the faculty of M. S. N. C. It was also the beginning of endless waiting in lines, trying to be nonchalant and patient. atient—humph—"one line leads to another"—(right, gals?) longer and slower than the first; beginning with the receiving line and ending—oh, no never ending—better say continuing with the "chow" lines!

We lost the class games this time, but our spirits weren't dampened. (We were drenched by the downpour of the afternoon!)

Don Foster and Joan Ford acted as class leaders. The representatives for the Men's Union were Ray Cousineau and Joe Dodd; Joan Ford represented the girls for the Women's League.

Sheldon McElroy was elected president; Robert Nieman, vice-president; Arthur Gerada, secretary; and Norbert Ignasiak, treasurer. The Freshman Class Float, which bore the motto "Our Spirits Cannot Be Dampened," was paraded during election week. Posters and election propaganda in general were spread over the campus indicative of a class spirit as of yore.

DISCUSSION FESTIVAL

With the sole purpose of the post-war "back-to-school" urge, speech activities got into full swing this year under the direction of Dr. J. P. Kelly and Mr. Norwood Eastman. With an unusual amount of men back on the campus, we entered into the Eighth Annual Discussion Festival at Albion College on November 23.

Fifteen of our debaters who attended the Festival discussed the question, "To what extent should labor be given a share in the management of industry?" The Festival included, besides critiques from the several judges, a panel of well-informed speakers on the current labor-management topic. Ten colleges were represented at the Festival.

DEBATE

Debating activities were merely in the process of getting back to normal when we arrived at school this fall. Yet, under the direction of Mr. Norwood Eastman, we participated in several practice debates and then went into the State Tournament.

At the State Debate Tournament, held at Michigan State College, February 25. Charles Thumser and Leatrice Kaplan, our first affirmative team, won two decisions out of a possible three in the League debates. Nancy Ann Dobson and Mehran Thompson, our first negative, came through with a single win out of three possibilities. Thus, in the League debates we won four decisions out of a possible six—a high ranking in the League Finals this year.

In the Tournament itself, we produced four teams which garnered a single win out of a possible three. The affirmative teams included Doris Jedele and George Mitchell, and Fred Gluck and Charles Folsom. The negative consisted of Vanzetti M. Hamilton and Vladimir Svagr, and Marvin Baum and Donald Green. We were proud of our teams since most of them were debating for the first time in college competition except Hamilton, Mitchell, and Jedele.

EXTEMPORE SPEAKERS

In Extempore and Oratory this year. M. S. N. C. was represented by Mehran K. Thomson, Nancy Ann Dobson, Vanzetti M. Hamilton, Donald Streat, and Elizabeth McGregor.

Thomson and Dobson were entered in the Annual Extempore Speaking Contest. February 10, at Kalamazoo College. Thomson spoke on "The Atom and World Peace" and Dobson presented views on "Juvenile Delinquency." Dobson tied for third in the finals and lost in the toss-up.

Donald Streat and Elizabeth McGregor spoke in the first annual meeting of the Inter-Collegiate Peace Speech Association held at Charles McKenny Hall on February 19. Streat spoke on the subject "Taking the Long Way Around," and McGregor on "Survive or Perish." Nancy Ann Dobson entered in the extempore speaking on the topic "One World or None." All speeches in this contest were in the interest of world peace.

Vanzetti M. Hamilton represented M. S. N. C. in the 50th Annual Oratorical Contest of the Inter-collegiate Speech League. Speaking from the subject "New Frontiers for Democracy." Hamilton presented a plea for international unity.

Dr. J. P. Kelly. of the English Department, coached this year's group of speakers. This was Normal's first year entering speaking contest since pre-war days, but we feel that the ensuing year promises winners in this division for M. S. N. C.

CHOIR

MUSICAL ACTIVITIES

This year for the first time since the war, M. S. N. C. had a band for games and for concerts. At the football games they had many interesting numbers and formations. On March 20, they gave a concert featuring Marshal Gruver as drum soloist.

The orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Fitch, presented two concerts in the fall semester and two combined concerts in the spring semester. In the spring semester the first concert was a Mendelssohn program and the second was the annual spring concert at which they accompanied the choir.

The choir, under the able direction of Mr. Haydn Morgan, presented three concerts this year. One in the fall semester, the Christmas Concert, and two in the spring semester, Palm Sunday the cantata Hymn of Praise by Mendelssohn, and the regular spring concert in May. In addition to this a small group presented a program in Belleville.

INTER - FRATERNITY COUNCIL

The Inter-Fraternity Council resumed its duties under a revised constitution September, 1946. The council now contains two representatives from each of the five fraternities on the campus. Its main purposes are to supervise pledging, act as a receiver and compromiser of inter-fraternity gripes, and to form the fraternities of the campus into a closely-knit group.

To achieve this last purpose, the council sponsored the "Sweetheart Ball" (which it hopes to make an annual affair), a bridge tournament, and a treasury.

Through the Inter-Fraternity Council the fraternities are achieving the importance on the campus which they deserve.

HATS OFF TO THEE

Michigan Normal's 1946 gridders, captained by Flint's Jim Walton, just failed to make the .500 grade although they closed strong to take two and tie one out of the last three contests. The largest turnout in Huron history greeted Head Coach Elton J. Rynearson and Assistant Ray Stites as over 80 aspiring candidates reported for the fall drills. The Normalites concluded their gridiron campaign with a record of three wins, one tie and four losses.

FOOTBALL '47

The Huron eleven opened at Bloomington, Illinois, and the Illinois State Normal team handed the M. N. squad a surprising 10-0 setback as Rynie's charges were unable to penetrate the Red Birds' 10-yard line.

The next football contest was held at Holland with Hope College furnishing the opposition and in spite of 17 first downs. Rynie's proteges were unable to score, and the out-played but not out-scored Dutchmen racked up a 13-0 victory. Fullbacks Dale Anderson and Leo Wagner stole the offensive show and giant Jack Weiss and charging Chuck Lane were standouts in the Huron forward wall on both defense and offense.

Returning to Briggs Field for their first home game of the season, the Hurons broke into the victory column at the expense of Alma College.

Michigan Normal's eleven started fast against the powerful Central Michigan aggregation and opened the scoring with a 68-yard touchdown drive. Len "Automatic Tiny" Dalton kicked the point after touchdown with Wellner holding. Van Riper displayed brilliant quarter-backing during the touchdown drive. Brown thrilled the spectators with a sensational 50-yard kickoff return as the Chip's safety man managed to bring him down when it looked like he might go all the way.

Hillsdale proved to be another tartar on the Normal schedule as the hosts rudely upset the Hurons 18-7 by rallying for three touchdowns after Rynearson's footballers had taken a momentary 7-0 lead on Alderson's six-yard touchdown thrust and Dalton's point from placement. Highlight of the clash was Alderson's spectacular 89-yard kick from the line of scrimmage, which was one of the greatest boots in Huron history.

Michigan Normal defeated Albion 13-6 at the Huron Homecoming game.

The Normalites traveled to Muncie, Indiana, and fought a 7-7 deadlock with the Cardinals. The Hurons had a successful day in the air as Spilos, Simmons and Dugan completed 15 aerials, but the breaks stepped in to stop the Normalites' scoring opportunities.

Michigan Normal's footballers again took to the air lanes and their overhead game clicked as they trounced Great Lakes at Briggs Field in the season finale 19-0. Weiss, Larsen, Gerstler, Wiegman, Ciungan, Wilson and Lister were all standouts in the forward wall with Spilos' fine passing and Alderson's saunters up the middle of the offensive highlights.

BASKETBALL '47

The Huron hoopsters started brilliantly in the 1946-47 cage season by racking up six wins in the first eight contests, but the Stitesmen ran into a slump and wound up a tough schedule with a season mark of eight wins as against ten losses. Highlight of the campaign were the Normalites' conquests, on consecutive nights, of the highly-touted Northern Illinois State Teachers' College and Central Michigan College of Education at Mt. Pleasant, to annex the first annual Mid-West Invitational tourney crown.

Captain Charles Sampier passed the Normal sharpshooters in point producing with Center Howard Messenger garnering runner-up honors. Following the top duo in scoring were Dick Guenther, Vern Sherman, Len Sweet, and Jim Michel. Sampier's all-around play and marksmanship were superb, and Messenger's forte was rebounding and controlling the backboards. Sherman's ball handling was outstanding, and Guenther's long toms featured many contests. Sweet was the playmaker and the defensive star of the team. The above five men started most of the cage tilts. Bill Cave, Jim Michel, Bob Geddes, Roy Weir, Bob Bentley, Bob Moffett, Jim Powers, Clare Ebersole, Reinhardt Heininger, and Warren Piche composed the rest of the squad.

FOR M. S. N. C.

Messenger left two all-time marks on the books, although he made both of them during the 1945-46 season when he set an individual game and season record. Sampier's 22 points in the initial Central Michigan contest was the top individual scoring achievement of the season, and Sherman's sensational free-throw record of 37 out of 50 gave him the phenomenal mark of 74 percent of his foul shooting. Sweet's defensive prowess was indicated by the fact that he was assigned the opposition's high scorer in virtually every contest. Messenger, Sampier, and Sherman will be lost from the starting five by graduation, as will Warren Piche.

SHOUT TO THE SKY

The cross-country team, with Al Pingel, Captain Don Hossler, Rutilio Enzastiga, Bob Savinski, Bob Hopps, Billy Lintner, Leo Schuch, and Len Kraft carrying the brunt of the encounters, went undefeated as usual in harrier meets as they swamped Hillsdale with twelve Normalites finishing ahead of the first Hillsdale competitor, and easily defeated Bowling Green University in a dual meet. In the famed Central Collegiate Conference championships at Des Moines, Iowa, the Hurons captured third place behind powerful Drake and well balanced Notre Dame, with Pingel pacing the Normal entries by finishing tenth, followed by Schuch in fifteenth, Savinski in sixteenth, Enzastiga in eighteenth, and Lintner in twenty-first, for a spectacular exhibition of team balance.

The National Collegiate cross-country championships were held at East Lansing with the Normalites taking second in the college division as Wheaton College nosed out the Hurons for first place and thirteenth in the joint University-College class. Pingel was the 26th finisher, Hossler 62nd, Schuch 75th, and Hopps 100th.

Marshall's men were third in the Loyola Invitational at Chicago with only the University of Illinois and Michigan State's harriers compiling a better team score than the Normalites. Al Pingel led the runners as usual as he copped a seventh place in the meet. Although the Hurons maintained their spotless dual record during the season, they didn't fare so well in their lone triangular meet, in which the strong Miami University and Butler squads both defeated Michigan Normal at Oxford, Ohio. However, the Hurons completed a fine cross-country season with many highlights.

THE HURONS' WAR CRY

TRACK '47

The beginning of the 1947 track season for the Normal team was marked by a series of outstanding successes. After the opening of the season wih a triangular meet with Albion College and Central Michigan College of Education in which the Ypsi team won an almost uncontested victory, several individual athletes turned in outstanding performances. Foremost among these were Jim Brodie, freshman high-jump star, and Garion Campbell, sprinting ace. Brodie could be counted on not only for a first or tie in the high jump event, but also to finish in a scoring position in both the high and low hurdle contests. Campbell distinguished himself by winning the sixty-yard dash and both hurdle events at the opening meet and scoring in the Michigan A. A. U. meet, the State Relays, the Notre Dame. Marquette triangular meet, the National A. A. U. meet, and the All-Campus meet in Ann Arbor.

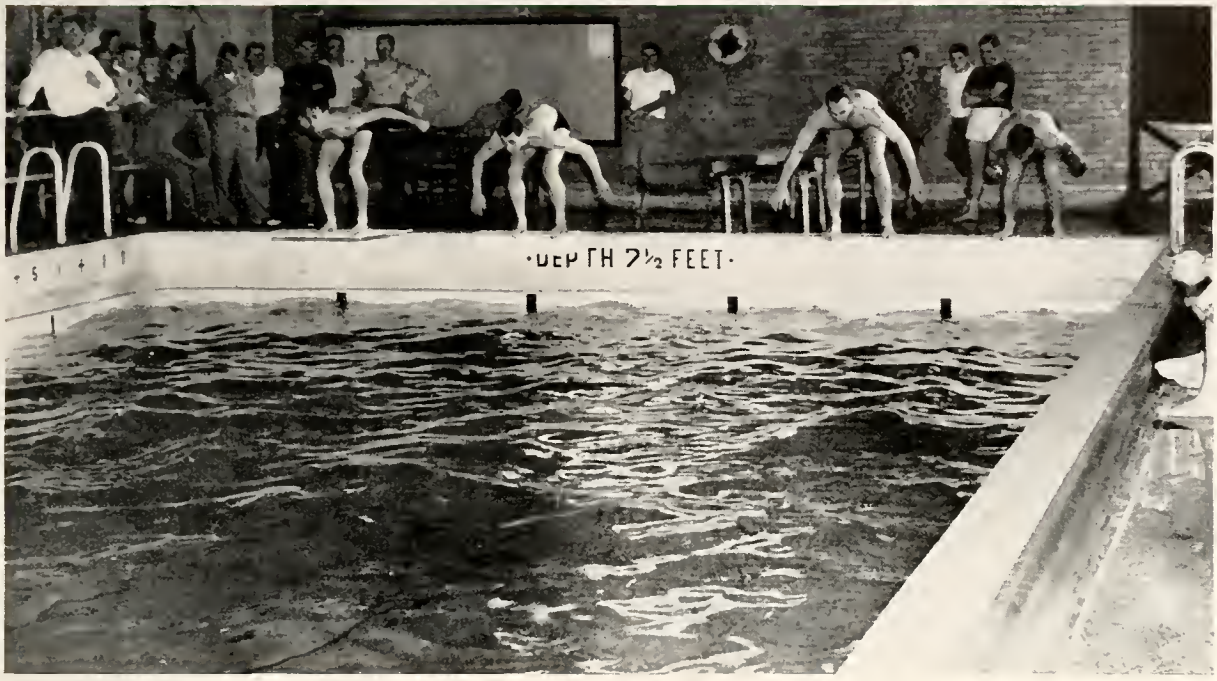
THE BRAVEST WE'LL DEFY



SWIMMING

Phil Wurzel's swimmers inaugurated varsity tank competition for the first time in fifteen years at Michigan Normal. Bowling Green University took every first place in the Huron inaugural as they defeated the M. N. natators 66-9.

The dual meet with the University of Detroit team was well contested with Detroit taking the hard fought 41-34 decision. Arlo Cox won the backstroke event for the Hurons and Frank Meloche took the diving competition. The Huron 300-yard medley trio of Cox, Art Solow and Phil Wurzel copped that event, and in the final event of the meet the Normal relay quartet of Farwell, Turney, Kruse and Wurzel nosed out the Titans on Wurzel's great anchor leg as he came from behind to nip the Detroit anchor man.

INTRAMURAL ATHLETICS

As expressed by the noted philosopher and organizer of the modern Olympic Games, Dr. DeCoubertin, "The important thing in athletics is not the winning, but the taking part. The essential thing is not conquering, but fighting well." This quotation, which can be found in the Intramural Handbook, displays the significance of the Intramural Program at Michigan Normal.

This year found the first active Intramural program on the campus since 1941-1942, and also the return of Dr. L. W. Olds, the organizer in 1921-1922 of our present system of Intramural athletics. Dr. Olds returned from service in the U. S. Navy as a Commander where he was Officer-in-Charge of the Navy's Physical Fitness and Intramural Athletic Program.

Being confronted with the reactivating of campus Intramural athletics, Director Olds appointed Bill Nuse, Huron athlete from Auburn, New York, as Senior Manager. Assisting Nuse were Harry McKitrick and Matthew Rumph, together with some fifteen organization managers. The Intramural Department, faced with a heavy male enrollment, organized for the first time on the campus competition among the residents of the dormitories. The newly-organized All-Campus Inter-Dormitory and Inter-Fraternity Leagues present a well-rounded school year program in sports for all male students.

Early fall found several hundred men from the Inter-Dormitory and Fraternity Leagues participating in touch football with the Ypsilanti Lodge Unit II and Kappa Phi Alpha Fraternity being crowned champions . Cross Country, tennis, and golf were contested in the All-Campus League.

Indoor season presented problems of limited time and space, but volleyball, basketball, handball, table tennis, badminton, foul shooting, weight lifting, and swimming were participated in by all leagues. One of the features of the indoor intramural season was "Open House" held during the month of March, which gave the faculty and student body some idea of the program.

Early spring found all leagues competing in softball, track athletics, Sigma Delta Psi Test, and horseshoe pitching. At the close of the college year, the Intramural athletics offered official competition in sixteen different types of sports for the male enrollment of the college.

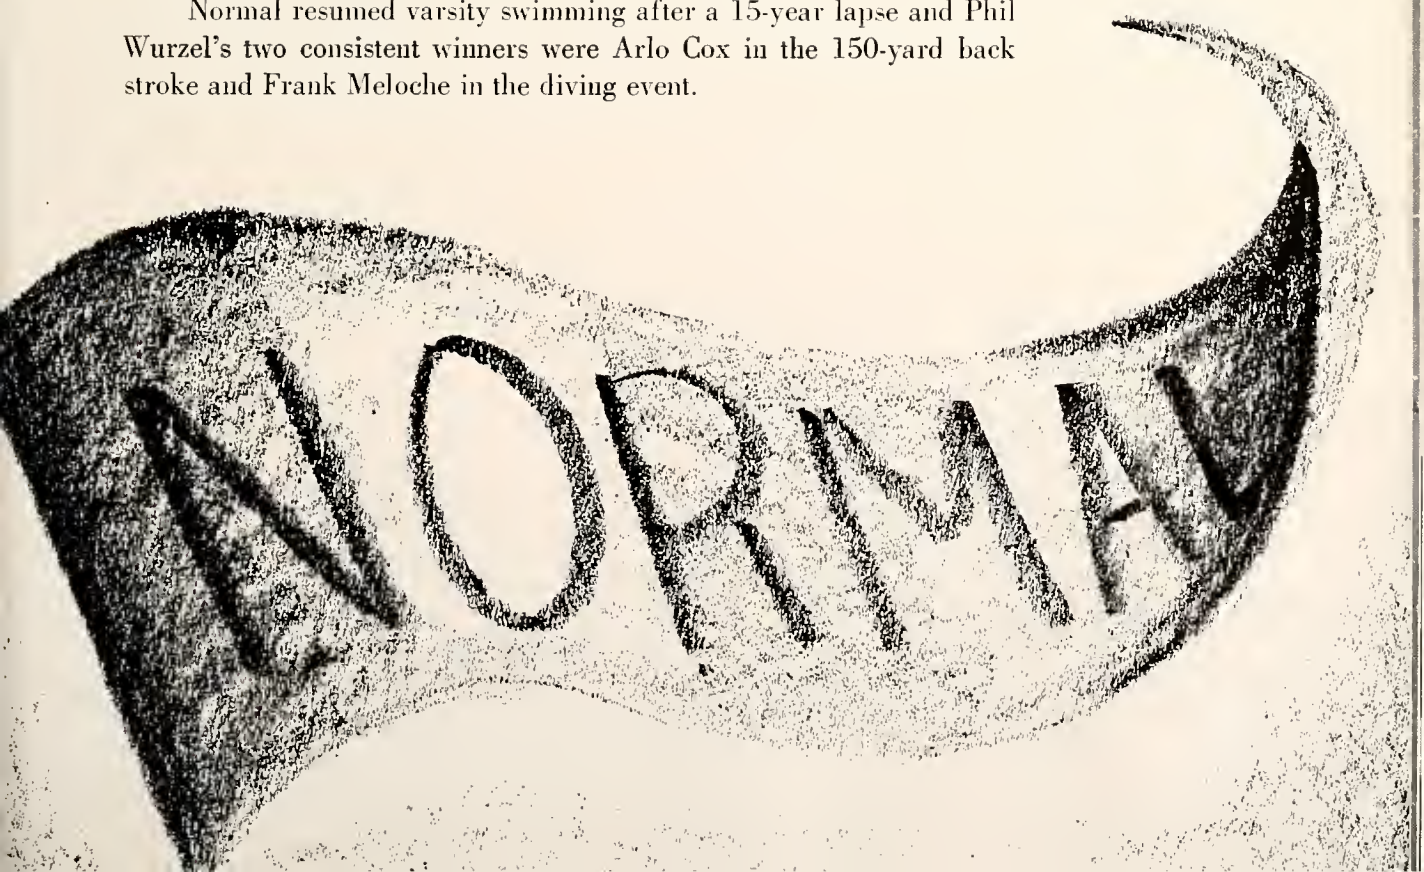
HURON LOOT

Highlighting the 1946-47 Hurons' basketball season was the winning by the Stitesmen of the first annual Mid-West Invitational tourney at Mt. Pleasant, with Illinois State, Milwaukee Teachers' College and Central Michigan furnishing the opposition for the Normalites. Ray Stites' proteges staged the meet's biggest upset by turning back Illinois State in the opening round and then upset the dopesters again in the finals by nosing out the favored Chips 48-47 for the tourney crown.

Standout performance for George Marshall's cross-country runners was the third place showing by the Hurons in the Central Collegiate Conference championships at Des Moines, Iowa, and the second place in the college division in the National Collegiate cross-country meet at East Lansing. Al Pingel was the outstanding performer on the squad, which finished an undefeated dual meet season.

Michigan Normal's indoor track team reached the heights with a brilliant team victory in the nation's largest indoor track carnival, the famed Illinois Tech Relays, as George Marshall's well-balanced squad topped 47 colleges to annex the team trophy for the fifth time in the last six meets. Individual star of the indoor season was Freshman Garion Campbell, the Huron sprint sensation, who won dash crowns in the Central Collegiate Conference and Illinois Tech Relays meets, as well as placing fourth in the National A. A. U. 60-yard dash at New York's Madison Square Gardens and going undefeated in both dual and triangular events. Pressing Campbell for individual honors was Freshman Jim Brodie, who tied for first in both the Michigan A. A. U. and Michigan State Relays in the high jump. Brodie leaped 6 ft. 4 in. in the National A. A. U. meet but went unplaced. Noteworthy performances were turned in by Don Smith, who won the half-mile event in the Illinois Tech Relays, and by various Normal relay teams who were composed of Captain Bill Cave, Archie Coran, Don Hossler, Al Pingel, Bill Nederlanden, Mart Marx, and Chuck Hollosy. Captain Cave ran a 50:3 440 at Chicago in the Tech Relays with Pingel and Hossler contributing 1:59 half-miles at the same meet. Pingel turned in two 4:22 miles during the campaign.

Normal resumed varsity swimming after a 15-year lapse and Phil Wurzel's two consistent winners were Arlo Cox in the 150-yard back stroke and Frank Meloche in the diving event.



CAMPUS LIFE IS NOT ALL CLASSROOMS

YEAR'S FIRST FORMAL

VETERANS' DANCE

"Say! Is your man a member of the Veteran's Club Oh, haven't you heard? They made quite a marked appearance on the college social calendar by presenting the first formal dance of the year, October 18th," one girl was recently heard telling another.

The dance was under the chairmanship of Fred Shedd, who announced that only a limited number of tickets would be sold. Soon the telephones were ringing constantly at the King-Goodison dormitories, presaging the fact that it was to be a well-attended affair.

A "Name" band, that of Bob Berkley, of Chicago, was secured to furnish the music for dancing. His orchestra has previously broadcast nightly from the Melody Mill in Chicago, and it was quite a thrill to dance to the music of a famous dance band as it played our special request numbers.

YOUR MATER'S CALLING

Saturday morning during Homecoming was bustling with activity. Band instruments were being tuned up, and last minute touches being put on floats. The streets were soon lined with "alums" and students to witness the big parade. Excitement filled the air as the band music drifted to our ears, and soon comments were being made on the floats sponsored by the various organizations on campus.

Perhaps the three outstanding floats that we remember best are those that took first-place prizes. Remember the "Come Home—Your Mater's Calling" float of the Arm of Honor Fraternity, and the "United for Peace" of the Tri-Sigma Sorority? We need not mention that the many other floats all ran close seconds.

WE'RE COMING,

Friday, the week-end of Homecoming, arrived damp and dreary, but the weather failed to dampen the determined spirits of the Freshmen to put up a good fight against the Sophomores in the annual Class Games.

At the close of classes, they waded through mud to the Hollow to watch the great contest. The "Frosh," being with "their pants down," lost, but they gave much promise of making next year's games much better.

"Come Home—Your Mater's Calling" was the slogan selected to keynote this year's Homecoming celebration. The slogan winner, Joan House, was presented with the prize at the Pep Rally, Friday night at Pease Auditorium.

Jack Baker, as master of ceremonies, not only kept the show rolling right along but also outdid himself for laughs.

MATER

HAD A SWELL

The Homecoming Dance provided a grand finale to a week-end filled with entertainment. On a dance floor, crowded with students, alumni, and faculty, we attempted to dance to the fine music of Stan Johnson and his band.

From the moment we entered the Union Saturday night until the time we took our leave, we were busy renewing old acquaintances and meeting new people.

Whenever we turned around we beheld a familiar face that recalled the days that used to be. There was indeed much handshaking that Saturday night, for the words "hello there" certainly worked overtime almost to the point of becoming tiresome.

The Michigan Normal gridders took to the air lanes to hand Albion a 13-6 defeat before a rain-soaked capacity crowd of alumni. Tally Spilos tossed a looping 30-yard pass that Bob Blaha gathered in on the Albion 10 and romped the rest of the way for the initial touchdown with Dalton converting and Wellner holding. After yielding a touchdown to the Britons, the Hurons roared back with an 84-yard sustained march that was climaxed by a neat 18-yard pass from Wellner to Simmons for a touchdown. The entire squad saw action with Weiss, Bob Larsen, Fred Wiegman, Virgil Ciungan, and Ben Lister all turning in sparkling defensive performances. The most dramatic play of the gridiron clash was Alderson's great 70 yard kickoff return that he took in his own end zone and thundered up the middle with Larsen's savage blocking accounting for three men before Alderson was finally dragged down.

HARVEST

It was the fellows' turn to ask each other: "Have you been dated for the dance yet?" The Women's League was presenting its annual Harvest Hop under the co-chairmanship of Helen Niparko and Mary Alice Warner.

The opening day of the ticket sale found the McKenny Hall lobby filled with girls eager to buy their tickets, many of whom arrived over an hour before the sale started, to insure their not being left out.

HOP

At last the great night arrived. The ballroom was crowded with couples dancing the evening away to the music of Frank Beck and his orchestra. Many couples also had their pictures taken as the best means of remembering this event long after it was over.

NORMAL

NOEL

YULE LOG DRAG

The main topic in campus conversation following Thanksgiving vacation centered around the many approaching Christmas events. Foremost was the Yule Log Drag, scheduled for December 6. At first, the freshmen wondered a little just what the Yule Log Drag was, but the upperclassmen soon enlightened them, explaining it was the annual formal dance presented by the Men's Union.

A popular Detroit band furnished the music, and a capacity crowd danced the night into pleasant memories. Old Santa's face, one of the outstanding novel decorations in the ballroom, beamed down on the happy couples from behind the orchestra.

Chairmen William Hanford and Bill Adams exerted every effort in providing an exceedingly good time for all who attended the Drag. That their efforts were well rewarded was evidenced by the gay spirit this opening Christmas event produced, which persisted throughout the remainder of the college Christmas program.

WIGWAM

"Wigwam? When?" . . . "Oh, Saturday?" . . . "Sure, I'll go." . . . "See ya at 9. Bye." Thus one more couple added its presence to the throngs of Normalites at the "Saturday Nite Fanfare.' The softly lit ballroom —the "Indians" at the door and the strains of Stan Johnson's music lent themselves easily to the pseudo-nite club and the chit-chat of the "patrons."

"Do you hear those drums? That's Stan beatin' out for the Huron Braves and their maidens."

INTER-FRAT SWEETHEART BALL

The Sweetheart Ball—and every campus lovely was pruning her feathers for that event. The undercurrents of anticipation and excitement scurried like mice across the campus to the dorms and back.

The fraternity men went all out for their "queen"—even the merchants bestowed her with gifts. Pictures, presents and praise all settled on the lovely shoulders (which were well displayed by a white lace strapless) of Ruth Ann Smith, Queen of the Fraternity Ball.

Rod Hutchinson and Warren Piche engineered it and secured Joe Tinkers' band for the evening. The band featured a special dance for each "frat" and mellow notes led the dancers in many smooth numbers.

Dances all are memoirs after they're over and this is no exception—the tiny paddle-favors alone will grace many a memory book in years to come.

J-HOP

"Good evening. Mr. Munson, this is Suzie Slagle and her escort, Mr. Spinet T. Owens." . . . "Miss Farnham, this is Suzie Slagle and her escort, Mr. Spinet P. Bones." . . . "Miss Hill, this is Suzie Slagle and her escort, Mr. Skinhead P. Jones." . . . So goes it through the reception line, with an entirely new character emerging. Maybe that is what you might expect after climbing the Stairway to the Stars to the melliflnous tones of Bob Strong's orchestra.

The efforts of the Junior class were as traditionally well-wrought as always. Co-chairmen Stanley Schook and Joan House deserve many laurels for their skillful management.
